Dear Colleagues,

April is an exciting month in the life of our chapter. Not only will we no longer have to worry about our meetings getting snowed out, we will have two competitions and a very special guest to cap off our year!

Monday, April 8th, is our doubleheader competition day. I want to thank Bruce and Joan in advance for their leadership and those of you among our ranks who have volunteered as page turners and room monitors. As talented as Bruce and Joan are, they can't be in two (or three) places at once. We are still in need of ushers for each of the competitions. This is an easy task. You simply need to arrive a little earlier than usual so you can hand out programs. For those of you who have attended competitions in the past, you already know that it's crucial for everyone in the audience to have a program to insure full and active participation in the hymns.

This year we have the unique opportunity to celebrate Easter Monday, April 22nd, with the closing of our chapter year. We will be gathering at Westminster Presbyterian for dinner and a program featuring Grand Rapids Symphony Music Director Marcelo Lehninger. Marcelo will speak about the impact of the organ on symphonic literature. The program will be moderated by Mary Tuuk, President and CEO of the Grand Rapids Symphony. Excerpts will be played by chapter member Jonathan Tuuk.

Last but not least, there is still time to register for the convention if you haven't already. It's a painless process that all begins at <https://grago2019.org/>.

Monthly programs for 2018 – 2019

Here is the lineup of AGO meetings for this season, 2018-2019. Our meetings take place at various venues throughout the area and are typically the third Monday evening of the month although there are certainly exceptions. We generally begin with a punch bowl and social time at 6:30 p.m. followed by dinner at 7:00 p.m.

The cost for dinner is $15 and to encourage attendance by younger members the board has underwritten the cost of meals for all AGO members and guests under the age of 30. The cost of these meals will come from a dedicated fund that has been recently established for this purpose.

The program portion of the meeting follows at 8:00 p.m. and all programs are open to the public. On occasion free-will offerings will be accepted at the conclusion of some evening programs.

Dinner reservations are requested by the Wednesday prior to the meeting and members will be called by the Executive Council. You may also make your reservation by emailing agodinner@grago.org or calling our Treasurer, Errol Shewman at 307-7241.
